MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

FROM: Chief, Legislation Division
Office of Legislative Liaison

SUBJECT: Draft Fiscal Year 1986 Intelligence
Authorization Bill

1. Attached for your review and comment is a revised draft of the Fiscal Year 1986 Intelligence Authorization Bill, which will be transmitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for Administration clearance prior to its submission to Congress. Titles I through III and Title VIII of the draft bill are, for the most part, routine in nature and similar to comparable provisions contained in the Fiscal Year 1985 Authorization Act. Title IV's provisions addressing Executive Level Schedule increases for the DCI and DDCI and permitting the Agency to continue to make security determinations in the drug and alcohol abuse area remain unchanged from the last draft. The provision in Title IV addressing interlocutory appeals has been slightly modified to make clear that while the DCI's certification of harm to the national security creates a right of appeal, it is the Attorney General who must exercise this right and decide whether an appeal will be sought in each case in which a certification is made. Previous provisions in
